

Looking for Russian Visas in Canada? If so check out below where to apply.

As an individual, you can have your visa processed at any consulate of the Russian Embassy in Canada which can be found in three locations with each having its own jurisdiction: Ottawa, Toronto, Montreal. You can also apply for your visa at the Russian Visa Center in Canada, an independent business that is subcontracted by the Russian Embassy in the country which also has delegations in these same cities: Ottawa, Toronto, Montreal.

If you're applying for a visa to Russia from Canada, you can visit a consulate of the Russian Federation depending on which jurisdiction you live in. See below details.

For your information, residents of Canada now apply for Russian travel visas not at consular departments but at the three Russian Visa Centers in Ottawa, Toronto and Montreal. There are currently no extra requirements for Canadian citizens beyond those outlined in our general visa guide. Canadian citizens are normally required to show proof of valid health insurance when applying for Russian travel visas.
